Re: United States v. Darren D'Anzieri
20 Cr. 660 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

Defendant Darren D'Anzieri ("D'Anzieri") has been at liberty since December 10, 2020, on an unsecured $100,00.00 bond that limits his travel to the Southern and Eastern District of New York, the District of New Jersey, the District of Maryland and all federal districts within the State of Pennsylvania. He has been fully complaint with the conditions of release. By this letter, D'Anzieri respectfully requests permission to travel with his wife to Greece from July 25, 2022 to August 4, 2022. Danzieri also respectfully requests that, in the event this motion is granted, that the Court also permit him to obtain his passport from Pretrial Services ("PTS") to enable this travel. A prerequisite for this travel will be providing PTS and the government with a detailed itinerary prior to departure. The government, by Assistant United States Attorney Samuel Raymond, does not object,to this application and PTS, as is its policy regarding international travel, by United States Pretrial Officer Lea Harmon, takes no position.

Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of these requests.

Very truly yours,

Sanford Talkin

The application is GRANTED.
So Ordered.
